THE REASONABLE INTERPRETER

International Roundtables for the Semiotics of Law - IRSL

Torino, 19-20 September 2019

Location: Aula Blu, ground floor | Palazzo del Rettorato | Via Po 15, Torino

September 19

Opening and registration

9:00-13:00 | SESSION 1
INTERPRETATION AND REASON IN SEMIOTICS

Chair: Paolo Heritier (University of Eastern Piedmont)

Massimo Leone (University of Turin / Shanghai University) Facing Digital Reasonability

Ugo Volli (University of Torino) Argumentative Competence and Rationality in the Talmud

Coffee break

Jenny Ponzo (University of Torino) "The Offering of Life" as a New Case for Sainthood: Interpretations of Life Models in the Catholic Church between Law, Judicial Practices, and Doctrine

Gabriele Vissio (University of Torino) Clinician as Reasonable Interpreter. Philosophical and Semiotic Implications of the Concept of Vital Normativity

Annamaria Lorusso (University of Bologna) Between Truth, Legitimacy and Legality in the Post-Truth Era

Lunch

14:30-18:00 | SESSION 2
INTERPRETATION AND REASON IN LAW

Chair: Massimo Leone (University of Turin / Shanghai University)

Ana Margarida Simões Gaudêncio (University of Coimbra) Rationality and/as Reasonableness within Formal-Theoretical and Practical-Dialectic Approaches to Adjudication: Semiotic and Normative Perspectives

Miklós Könczöl (Pázmány Péter Catholic University) Style Matters: Inferences from Style in (Legal) Interpretation and Argumentation

Coffee break

Clement Labi (University of Luxembourg) "Kripkenstein" and the Problem of Consistency in Legal Interpretation

José Manuel Aroso Linhares (University of Coimbra) The Reasonable Judicial Assessment in a Time of Scientific Evidence: a Methodologically Specific Problem?

September 20

9:00-13:00 | SESSION 3
LEGAL AND NON-LEGAL SEMIOTICS OF LAW

Chair: Jenny Ponzo (University of Torino)

Paolo Heritier (University of Eastern Piedmont) 'Scienza Nuova.' The 'Non-Legal' Semiotics of Law: beyond the Reasonable/Non-Reasonable Distinction

Alessandro Campo (University of Torino) Metaphorical Use of Algorithm in Legal Reasoning

Angela Condello (University of Torino) Law, Writing and Digital Society. Who Interprets What, Today?

Coffee break

Mario Ricca (University of Parma) Legal Reasonableness as Creative Deixis and Trans-Categorical Re-Configuration

Claudius Messner (University of Salento) Listen to Distant Voices

Lunch

14:30-18:00 | SESSION 4
CROSS-DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON REASONABLE INTERPRETATION

Chair: Angela Condello (University of Torino)

Devon Schiller (independent scholar) Emoji v. Law: Saussure's Reciprocal Difference in Legal Reasoning about Facial Signs

Bettina Bor (Pázmány Péter Catholic University) Peirce on Law and Interpretation

Gabriele Marino (University of Torino) Automatic for the People. A Brief Cultural History of the Relation between Computation and So-Called Art

Coffee break

Leonardo Amorim (University of Panthéon-Sorbonne) Can Reasonableness be Described? On the Impossibility of a Descriptive Discourse about Norms

CONCLUSIVE DISCUSSION

Organizing Committee: Angela Condello, Paolo Heritier, Massimo Leone, Jenny Ponzo